IRAC-M-9
15 October 1974

1. Presidential Memorandum on Leadership and Management of the U.S. Foreign Intelligence Community
(USIB/IRAC-D-22.1/28, 15 October 1974)

Before addressing the regular agenda items, Mr. Colby commented on President Ford's memorandum to him of 9 October. This letter reaffirmed the Presidential memorandum of 5 November 1971 regarding the DCI's responsibilities and authority as leader of the Intelligence Community.

2. Briefings on:
  - a. FY 1974 Financial Performance
  - b. Impact of Congressional Reductions on FY 1975 Program Plans
  - c. Proposed FY 1975 Financial Plans

Program managers or their representatives responsible for CIA, CCP, GDIP, State, Special Air Force and Special Navy provided briefings on their programs. A complete set of briefing aids used by the program managers are available in the IRAC Secretariat.

Commenting on the briefings presented, Mr. Colby said he was impressed with the degree the dollar figures are not subject to major changes during the year. This appears to reflect that the program managers are following their budgets rather closely.

3. Review of the Status of FY 1976 Program Development

Mr. Colby said he thought it would be useful to provide an overview of what appeared to be the overall financial picture for the Intelligence Community for FY 1976. Using three charts to illustrate the difficulties, Mr. Colby said that the impact could be seen either when one compared the PDM with the 1975 figure or in comparison with the guidance prescribed by OMB in its letter to the DCI of July 1974. (USIB/IRAC-D-74.2/7, 29 July 1974, Limited Distribution through Restricted Channels) The increased
